PER CURIAM:

Daniel Ross seeks review of the Board of Immigration Appeals' ("Board") decision and order dismissing his appeal from the immigration judge's denial of his application for asylum and withholding of deportation. Our review of the record discloses that the Board properly found that Ross failed to establish a well-founded fear of persecution. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the Board. See Ross v. INS, No. A72-473-443 (B.I.A. Feb. 7, 2000). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
