Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Jerry Gerard Parson appeals the district court's order denying his motion for reduction of sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c) (2006), and its subsequent order denying his motion for reconsideration. The district court granted Parson's motion to file an untimely notice of appeal as to its order denying reconsideration, but denied it as to its order denying his motion for reduction of sentence. Parson did not appeal the district court's order disposing of his motion to file an untimely notice of appeal, and thus only the district court's order denying reconsideration is properly before us. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm. United States v. Parson, No. 5:04-cr-00018-RLV-CH-11 (W.D.N.C. Apr. 17, 2009). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
