PER CURIAM:

In this employment discrimination action, Appellant appeals from the district court's orders granting Defendants' motion to dismiss certain of her claims and granting summary judgment as to the remainder. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinions and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. Rushing v. Virginia, No. CA-95-168-4 (E.D. Va. Mar. 28 & July 5, 1996). In addition, because Appellant has already paid the filing fee, we deny her motion to proceed in forma pauperis. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
