PER CURIAM:

Appellant appeals from the district court's order denying his motions for rehearing, properly construed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b), and for oral argument. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion and find no reversible error. See United States v. Williams, 674 F.2d 310, 312 (4th Cir. 1982). Accordingly, we deny a certificate of probable cause and dismiss on the reasoning of the district court. Lakes v. Witkowski, No. CA-94-2971-3-OBC (D.S.C. Dec. 11, 1995). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
