PER CURIAM:

Reynold Samuels appeals the judgment order of the district court sentencing him to forty-eight months imprisonment based on Samuels' violation of his supervised release terms. Samuels claims that the court's finding that he possessed marijuana with an intent to distribute was not supported by a preponderance of the evidence. Our independent review of the record reveals no error. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment order of the district court. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
