PER CURIAM:

Christopher Lamont White appeals from his conditional guilty plea conviction for possession with intent to distribute cocaine base. On appeal, he only alleges that the district court erred by denying his motion to suppress evidence found in his vehicle following a traffic stop. We have reviewed the order denying the motion to suppress and the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. See United States v. Christopher, No. CR-98-332 (M.D.N.C. Jan. 14, 1999). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
