Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Tyree Craig Jones appeals the district court's text-only order denying his post-conviction motion to dismiss his criminal case for lack of jurisdiction filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(4). The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure do not provide a vehicle by which Jones may challenge his criminal judgment. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 1, 81; United States v. Mosavi, 138 F.3d 1365, 1366 (11th Cir. 1998) ("Rule 60(b) simply does not provide relief from judgment in a criminal case."). We therefore affirm the district court's order. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
