95-3388-S)

Submitted: May 16, 1996

Decided: May 28, 1996

See Local Rule 36(c).

PER CURIAM:

Appellant appeals from the district court's order dismissing his employment discrimination action. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. McRae v. Maryland, No. CA-95-3388-S (D. Md. Nov. 21, 1995). We note that to the extent Appellant sought reconsideration of the district court's dismissal of his prior action, rather than to file a new action, relief was properly denied. Appellant presented no information to support a finding that the district court abused its discretion in determining that Appellant's first action was untimely. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
