PER CURIAM:

Appellant appeals the district court's order denying her post-judgment motions to accept newly discovered evidence and for entry of default judgment. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. Parham v. Ayscue, No. CA-96-421-5-H (E.D.N.C. Jan. 22, 1998). We deny Parham's motions to produce evidence and command attendance at hearing. We deny Parham's motion for oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
