PER CURIAM:

Raymond Birr appeals the district court's order dismissing his civil action alleging employment discrimination. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion accepting the recommendation of the magistrate judge and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. See Birr v. Charleston Packaging Co., Inc., No. CA-97-2805-2-11AJ (D.S.C. Apr. 12, 1999). Also, we do not find that the district court erred in denying Birr's untimely motion to supplement the record. We dispense with oral argument and grant Appellees' motion to decide the appeal without oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
