PER CURIAM:

Gregory G. Williams appeals the district court's order granting Defendant's motion for summary judgment on his employment discrimination complaint. We have reviewed the record and the district court's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm on the reasoning of the district court. See Williams v. Federal Express Corporation, No. CA-97-433-3-MU (W.D.N.C. May 25, 1999).* We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.

AFFIRMED

* Although the district court's order is marked as "filed" on May 18, 1999, the district court's records show that it was entered on the docket sheet on May 25, 1999. Pursuant to Rules 58 and 79(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, it is the date the order was entered on the docket sheet that we take as the effective date of the district court's decision. See Wilson v. Murray, 806 F.2d 1232, 1234-35 (4th Cir. 1986).
