Appalachian School of Law Oral Argument Session: These cases are being argued at Appalachian School of Law, 1169 Edgewater Drive, Grundy, VA 24614. The argument session is open to the public. See Visit us - Appalachian School of Law \(asl.edu\).

All attendees must have a picture ID and will be screened for prohibited items before entering the auditorium. The following items are prohibited: weapons, potential weapons, flammable materials, electronic devices (cell phones, smart watches, cameras, recording devices), bags (backpacks, purses, briefcases), food, drinks hats (except for religious purposes). Presenting attorneys are authorized to bring such items as are needed for presentation of their case. Media representatives may request prior authorization to take pictures during a "Question and Answer" session following oral argument. Other photography or recording is not permitted.

Forty minutes of argument time are allotted for each case. Attendees are asked to enter and exit the auditorium between cases rather than during argument.
