

RESOLUTION
OF THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

RESOLVED that when a conflict between district courts and the court of appeals in the scheduling of cases arises, counsel who experience such a conflict shall be required to report it in the first instance to the district court. In resolving the conflict, precedence will be given to the court of appeals unless the district court certifies to the court of appeals that exceptional circumstances exist.

FOR THE COUNCIL

James R. Winters
Chief Judge

ADOPTED OCTOBER 1, 1984