UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

No. 26-6265

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

v.

TYRONE YOUNG,

Defendant - Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia, at Danville. James P. Jones, Senior District Judge. (4:18-cr-00017-JPJ-1)

Submitted: August 27, 2026 Decided: September 1, 2026

Before KING, HEYTENS, and BENJAMIN, Circuit Judges.

Affirmed by unpublished per curiam opinion.

Tyrone Young, Appellant Pro Se.

Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Tyrone Young appeals the district court's orders denying Young's motions (1) for reconsideration of the court's prior orders denying Young's motions for leave to file a successive 28 U.S.C. § 2255 motion and to compel discovery, and (2) to vacate, set aside, or amend the restitution order. As a threshold matter, we grant Young's motion to amend his informal brief. We have reviewed the record and discern no reversible error in the district court's denial of Young's motions. Accordingly, we affirm the district court's orders. United States v. Young, No. 4:18-cr-00017-JPJ-1 (W.D. Va. Feb. 20, 2026).

Consistent with our decision in United States v. Winestock, 340 F.3d 200, 208 (4th Cir. 2003), we construe Young's notice of appeal and informal briefs as an application to file a second or successive § 2255 motion. Upon review, we conclude that his claims do not meet the relevant standard. See 28 U.S.C. § 2255(h). We therefore deny authorization to file a successive § 2255 motion.

We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
